TERMS OF SUPPLY: BOOKS

- (i) Books on approval should be finalized / returned within 30 days. The payment for the books approved should be made within 60 days of the receipt of the bill. The bill is to be raised by the supplier at the conversion rate prevailing on the date when the books are finally invoiced against order or procured from abroad.
- (ii) Payment of outstation suppliers should preferably be made through RTGS/NEFT or Bank Drafts, after deducting bank charges. Moreover, the supply of books is strictly subject to the payment made to the supplier by the customer after getting the material within 90 days from the date of receipt. Whereas, in the absence of payment made within 90 days, the supplier shall have the right to charge interest as per the prevalent bank rates from the customer on the outstanding net amount. Whereas, the interest amount shall have to be paid by the customer to the supplier alongwith the principal amount to be paid to the supplier. Terms are suggestive not mandatory.
- (iii) The Supplier shall append the following declaration on the bills :-
  - (a) Only latest editions have been supplied and these are not remainder titles.
  - (b) Income Tax Permanent Account No. (PAN) of the supplier to be provided.
  - (c) The prices have been correctly charged in accordance with the Publisher's/Importer's/Distributors' Invoices and Publishers' catalogues.
  - (d) As far as the price verification of books is concerned it should be "only from the publishers catalogue", "original invoice of the publishers" or "publisher's website". Price verification should not be done from the supplier site.
- (iv) The order placed by the libraries will be usually valid for six months unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the librarian and the supplier.

Procurement of books, publications, periodicals etc for a library does not require a tender to be called as per Chapter 6 (Procurement of Goods and Services) Rule 136 (Definition of Goods) of the General Financial Rules 2005 of the Government of India. This rule clearly excludes books, publications, periodicals etc for a library from the category of "goods".

Terms of supply for print journals and e-resources by approved Indian vendors of GOC

- 1) Bills to remain valid for 30 days from the date of bill. Supplementary bills shall be raised in case there is any difference in the price as charged by the Publishers or if there is a delay in payment beyond the period as recommended above.
- 2) Claims for missing issues of journals to be made within 90 days of the publication of the issue in case it is supplied directly by the publisher to the end user. In case of claims beyond 90 days of publication, if rejected by the publisher, the agent will not be held responsible for refund. No penal interest is payable on stray missing issues. In case of delivery from the agent, the supply will be reviewed every quarter between the Library and the agent. All legitimate claims from customers to be settled by the vendors within one and half years from the date of receipt of payment. However, this would not include titles which are published behind schedule.
- 3) Terms are suggestive not mandatory.
- 4) All subscriptions are subject to full advance payment only. No monthly, quarterly or half yearly payments will be accepted by the approved vendors from the Institutes.
